DISARMING OF THE GARRISON

IN JUAREZ IS RESUMED

Practically the entire garrison of Juarez has been disarmed again. Col. Hipolito Villa admitted disarming 600 men early in the week, allowing guns and cartridges only to soldiers and police officer on duty.

Following the former order to disarm the troops, changes in the garrison brought a relaxation in disarmament proceedings. The acute situation arising out of the evacuation of Chihuahua state, heralded by the arrival of troops and civilians at the border from the interior, has necessitated the enforcement of stringent measures to insure the loyalty of the garrison.

WON'T BUILD MILITARY

BOAD ON TEXAS BORDER

Sun Antonio, Tex. Dec. 1.—Construction of n military road along the Texas berder and of expensive military posts in Texas is not considered advisable by the war department, although it will probably be necessary to maintain troops along the border for a considerable time.

This conclusion of the war department was made public here in a letter from Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, to congressman John N. Garner, of Texas, who had inquired concerning the need of a military road and permanent garrison in areas which recently have been disturbed by Mexican bandits.
